Words of Welcome

Opening Prayer

In Unison

Lord Jesus Christ, make us temples of your presence as we gather in this sanctuary and in our homes. Be always near us when we seek you. Draw us to you, when we come alone and when we come with others, to find comfort and wisdom, to be supported and strengthened, to rejoice and give thanks. May it be in our time of worship, Lord Christ, that we are made one with you and learn to speak life and truth to one another in love so that our lives may be sustained and sanctified to serve God and neighbor in all that we say and do. Amen.

Closing Hymn

“Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy”

Hymn 340

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you, full of pity, love, and power.
I will arise and go to Jesus; he will embrace me with his arms;
in the arms of my dear Savior, O there are ten thousand charms.

Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome, God’s free bounty glorify;
true belief and true repentance, every grace that brings you nigh.
I will arise and go to Jesus; he will embrace me with his arms;
in the arms of my dear Savior, O there are ten thousand charms.

Come ye weary, heavy laden, lost and ruined by the fall;
if you tarry till you're better, you will never come at all.
I will arise and go to Jesus; he will embrace me with his arms;
in the arms of my dear Savior, O there are ten thousand charms.

Postlude

Flowers

The Chancel flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Virginia Whitehurst, for her birthday, June 20, by her grandparents, Judy and Jim Wilson, and her aunt, Lindsay Wilson.

The rose and cradle cross on the altar are in honor of Brooks Patrick McKinzie, born May 30, to parents Cameron and Brian McKinzie and big sister Parker.
